

The Wick Country Park

The Wick Country Park is Wickford's hidden treasure. Owned and managed by Basildon Borough Council, it is located just off Tresco Way, Wickford. The 50 acre Park has 2km of trails that lead past old hedgerows, through wide open meadows, past the five acre lake, ponds, WW2 pillboxes and woodlands.

A large children's play area is situated by the entrance to the Park. Car parking and cycle racks are also provided, together with picnic tables and benches. A pavilion building is situated near the entrance of the main section of the park. At present, this facility it is being used by a Nursery.

The Park is managed as a nature reserve, and attracts a wide variety of insect and bird life. But it is still a great area for outdoor pursuits such as walking, jogging, responsible dog walking, kite flying, picnicking and just enjoying the fresh air. Fishing (by permit, the Park Ranger will collect the fee from the lakeside) is allowed in the five acre lake, but the close season from March through to mid June, is strictly observed. Picnic tables and benches are provided for those that like to eat 'al fresco'. Car parking and cycle racks are available all year round but cycling is not allowed in the Park.

The Friends of The Wick Country Park (FOWCP)

Why not show support for the Wick Country Park by becoming a Friend? Membership costs only £3 per household per annum, and the money raised is used to enhance the Park and to provide activities, many of which are aimed at stimulating children's interest in Nature. The majority of events are FREE to participants.

The events diary for 2017 can be found overleaf.

Please, when using the Park:

- Clear up after your dog (bins provided) – and thank you to the vast majority of dog owners who do just that
- Take litter home with you
